

SUMMER HOLIDAY ASSIGNMENT
CLASS - VI
SUBJECT	ASSIGNMENT
ENGLISH	Kindly read all the instructions carefully and follow them. Mention Date and Day you work on the left hand side of the page. Try the best you can. Think of your answers carefully then write them neatly. Don't be a copycat and copy from somewhere. Be ORIGINAL! BE CREATIVE! Real effort is never bad. Do all the tasks. Activity 1 ONOMATOPOEIA Onomatopoeia is important as they provide the reader with a full description of a sound, forming the actual sound in the reader's mind. This creates a vivid reading experience. For example, "The wind howled, hissed, and whooshed" is more expressive than "The wind blew." Onomatopoeia can provide a poem or prose passage with sound imagery and rhythm which reflects the mood of the composition. Furthermore, it is a powerful device that gives a passage a sense of reality in which readers can hear sounds while reading words. ONOMATOPOEIA IN CREATIVE WRITING Onomatopoeia provide readers with exciting, realistic and evocative descriptions of sound in both poetry and prose. What you need to do? Go for a nature walk and don't make too much noise or you'll frighten away the birds and small animals. Just look around at the trees, bushes, birds and insects. Make notes in your diary. Come back and write about the interesting things you saw that you had never bothered about earlier. Take help from the sounds heard in the nature. Do this activity in your English Grammar note book. Activity 2 We are often very quick to form opinions about people. We label them without realizing that we may be hurting them. What does labelling a person mean? This means giving your opinion about a person without caring what effect it may have on the person or even bothering if your opinion is right or wrong. Think about the following questions. How would you answer them? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Do you laugh when a classmate gives a wrong answer?</li> <li>2. Do you label a classmate or someone you know as fat, silly, slow or unintelligent?</li> <li>3. Do you gossip about your friends unkindly when they are not present?</li> </ol> Remember the following points. Be kind, understanding and positive about the people you meet.

Learn to accept people who are different.
Remember you too have strengths and weaknesses.
Work on your weaknesses and make your strengths help you to become a better person. Don't be afraid of standing up for what is right even if it offends your friends.
